Teams have players.
A baseball team has nine players.
Each player is important.

The pitcher is very important.
She pitches the ball to the batter.
The catcher is very important. He catches the ball the pitcher pitches.

The batter is very important. He hits the ball the pitcher pitches.
The outfielder is very important.
She catches the ball the batter hits.

The infielder is very important.
He catches the ball the batter hits.
All the players are important.
To win, a team needs each player.
